Please come join us for this event, it is a good cause filled with food, fun, and good information.

- Diversity Council Last week we did not have a meeting. However, we did a lot of fun activities. On Thursday, members of the Diversity Council went to the New Hope Church where they were helping with Thanksgiving food bank. It was a great opportunity to do a community service and just be a part of the awesome event. Later that day, a majority of international students got together to celebrate the Thanksgiving with Eilat and just thank each other for everything.

On Friday, we celebrated another international holiday - Eid (Ubarak). We cooked Russian, Turkish, Egyptian, and Peruvian food and had a great cultural evening.

Quote of the day:

- Sage Hall Council- Our events this week will be on Wednesday, rather than the usual Thursdays because the school has Preston Pug Fire, a musician performing this Thursday in the Fine Arts Building

For our social event, we will be showing Hour Christ Mass and it will be held at the activity center in the dorm. We'll have the usual hot/corn and the snack

There is also our hall decorating contest this week. It will be on a Christmas as the theme and the limit is $50 for each one who wants it judged, with a reward of a receipt for a $50 so excited, however knowing that many might be busy, we are still highly encouraging the halls to participate. The final judging will be done this Sunday the 9th. Prizes will be rewarded

Congratulations to the baseball boys. They will be going to parties today night for winning the Halloween decorating contest

We also planned on our Secret Santa and it will be held the 9th, a Thursday. We are still deciding on the place. This will be optional and we are bringing our packets

One of the highlights will be on shopping for a selected family. We will need to call the Valley House to check a family for this event

- Interclub- Last week we had a meeting and we informed the clubs about the dates for the Lane of Trees. The order for trees is due today and Interclub will have the trees ready to pick up on Wednesday. All the clubs need to decorate their trees, and need to have them finished and ready by next Monday, December 3rd so that the lane of trees can start. The Lane of Trees will take place next week for the 3rd - 9th. All the trees will be delivered to their families the next week during finals week, for the 9th - 9th
- Off Campus - Nothing much happened at the Off Campus Centers last week. Off Campus were closed in preparation

(V Sa)ehouse- 0 was able to take all o) the cans with Senator Chabuka, Senator Beye, and Senator Abdulla. They were very grateful. 0 took the manager shopping to buy cooking supplies. 0 was excited to take the durable supplies. It is a shelter for children who have either been sexually abused or severely abused.

They would like to split it up to be a girl house, and a separate boys house. They want it to be a family environment. They usually stay up to 6 months. However, the last few years, they've been staying longer due to a lack of foster houses. They have a lot of girls there. They have a total of 9+ children there. It was great to see everything they do for the children. It is a reality that children live in these environments. There is always a child coming in. It is a great cause.

They have a summer bonus room, for anyone who does well in school and is well behaved. The room downstairs was decorated by the CSO Tutoring Club. It motivates the children to do really well. They teach the children about health and nutrition. It is a great cause and motivates all of you for working hard.

0 was glad to see that you guys asked 5 questions and were engaged. Let's make sure we're reading the packets and paying attention and ask educated 5 questions without re/peating ourselves.

Let's remind ourselves about professionalism! & 2 e-mails may not agree with what a group has to offer, but we're here to represent the students.

Area 1: There is a white honours ceremony to honour graduates. It will be in the 8ine rts 3e ce ! ber 9-th at 6:00 PM.
