- Appeals- Unfortunately a few of our Senators who were unable to take grades or credits have been chosen to appeal; Senators who have been chosen not to appeal and would like to take this semester to focus on their grades. Let's keep encouraging her and keeping her informed. Last week we went through an appeals process with one senator and today we will be meeting with another Senator. During the appeals process, we give the opportunity to explain to us what their extraordinary circumstance was. After meeting we will enter closed session to confer with the (inal) verdict of their standing.
